Indians 1996

There are many factors that affect one's High School experience. For example, if the campus is in complete disarray, there are buildings coming down and going up all around you, and it scarcely resembles the campus it has been for over 50 years, that can tend to affect the High School experience. Past years have escaped all the chaos, and the underclassmen get to graduate from the "New" Palm Springs High School, but the Seniors got stuck in the middle: too late to enjoy the "Old" school, too early to enjoy the "New" one. But there's a bright side-after a few years of confusion, relocation and alteration, we will have a brand new, beautiful Palm Springs High. If you look out on the open areas, full of dirt, when the sun is high in the sky-if you look real close, and kind of squint your eyes, and let your imagination take over, you can almost see the new buildings, standing straight and tall on the new campus ... Then you blink, and exhale, and you realize that you can't really see buildings; but that the sun is getting to you, and you're tired and the burrito you ate for lunch is causing indigestion and playing tricks on your eyes ... And you get on with your life.

Medieval Madness

This year's Homecoming activities took Palm Springs by storm. The theme for the week was Medieval Madness, and by no means can it be described as anything less.

The Homecoming parade took place downtown as usual and was participated in by school clubs, sports teams, and on-campus organizations. Everybody had a heck of a good time; especially Mrs. Doris Gardner who celebrated her 31 years of teaching at PSHS as an official honoree of the parade. Thursday night brought us our annual bonfire. The night was capped off by a certain cheerleader's not-so princess-like reaction to having a shaving cream pie thrown in her face.

The highlight of the week came Friday as our league leading Indian football team took on Coachella Valley High School. With a handy lead after two quarters, the stage was set for the much anticipated Halftime show. Through the Junior Float's dragon nearly lost its head, the show went on and the annual float extravaganza was underway. A lull fell over the crowd as the Freshmen/Sophomore class thing and the Junior class float failed to impress. But as the Senior class float made its way around the final curve of the track it seemed as though all the tension and elation which had built up in the students all week had reached its boiling point. The crowd went wild as Matt McCall steered the float into position and its dragon, operated by Lewis Leiboh, blew its smoke time and time again. Though it seemed it could get no louder, the crowd then roared into a frenzy as Isaac Balles-teros and Toby Sherwood emerged from the castle atop the float covered in Indian red and white and chanting, "Sen-iors ... sen-iors ..." Minutes later Norma Quijano was crowned Queen and the Indians went on to defeat the Arabs by an embarrassing margin.

As the finishing touch, the following evening the excitement settled and the romance was in full effect as everyone got their groove on at the Homecoming dance held at the Palm Springs Hilton.

For many of us this exciting week is a time to remember. For others, a time to forget. But without a doubt, the theme for the week reflected the very essence of what ensued ... "Medieval Madness."

An Excellent Season For

Volleyball

The '95-'96 season for the Palm Springs High School Varsity Volleyball team turned out to be a great one for them. They finished first in their league and made it to first-round C.I.F. with the help of their Coach, Lanita Graves.

All players of this Varsity team were very valuable. Senior Jenny Taylor was voted best offensive player led the team along with M.V.P. Tracy Barton. Senior Kim Jackson received most inspirational player, which she deserved. Juniors Amanda Hollowell and Becca Benson were key items at the net for their blocking and hitting along with Heather Golden who was also a great defensive player. The Sophomores on this team were second year Varsity player Nicole Ediss, with her great setting ability, the two great back row players Dana Wallentine and Natalie Fellows, and Megan Chaney, who was an all-around great player.

"We started off slow, but towards the end we played together as a team and won league," says Dana Wallentine. Nicole Ediss believes that, "We will be a great team in the years to come." Good Luck

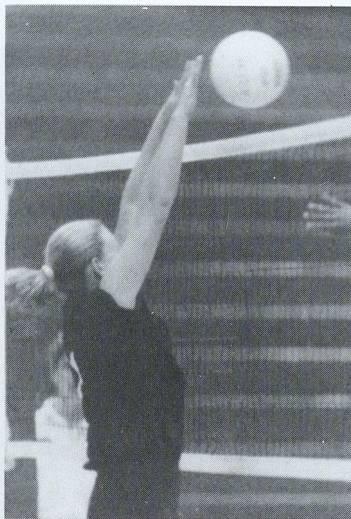

Natalie Fellows

Amanda Hollowell lowers herself to hit the ball as best as she can.

Rebecca Benson jumps to outstanding heights to block that ball from making it over the net.

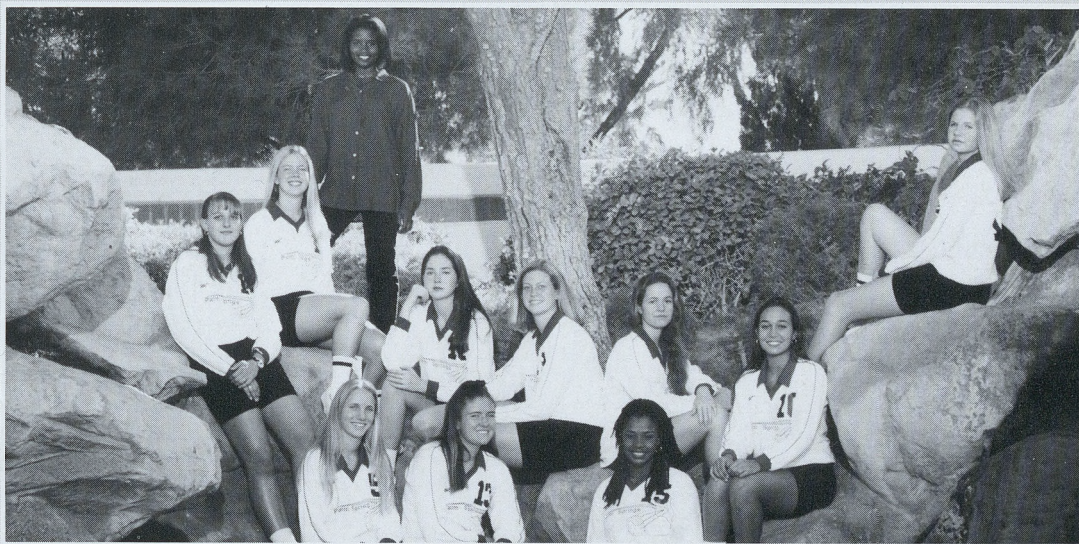

Rebecca Benson once again does all she can to keep the ball on the other side of the net.

Tennis

Cary Bingham-
"It was an enjoyable and rewarding year. Everyone seemed to improve and hopefully we'll continue our progression next year."

Kira Klatchko-
"It was a stupendous season. We've never done so well. Next year we'll do better. We will miss the seniors."

Missy Marta-
"Our success this season meant a lot to us all,
especially to Ruth, Joy,
Shianne and I because it marked the last time the four of us would play together. The past four years have been so much fun and so special."

What Missy, Ruth, Shianne, and Joy really do when Coach is late for prac-

Boys Basketball

The 1995-96 basketball season was an overwhelming success for the boys Varsity team. Besides going 10-0 in the Desert Valley League, our Indians advanced to the semifinals of the CIF Southern Section for the first time since 1983. Behind the intense all-around play of Earl Henderson, Bishop Miller, and Steve Trout and the strong inside play of James Jackson and Maurice Scott; the Tribe baffled defenses and pleased coach Barton en route to a 22-6 overall record. With home court advantage in three of their four playoff games, the team seemed nearly invincible, but fell short against J.W. North, to end their season, in a game which was close until the final minutes. Teams like this year's Indians don't come around often, and probably won't for years to come. In what seems little concession for the seniors who came "that close" to a championship, the sentiments of them all can be summed up in something Trout once said, "At least we went out with a bang!"

The Valley's Best

The '95-'96 season was a success for the Girls' Soccer Team. The team was well coached by Head Coach Louie Lopez and Assistant Coach Terry Tatum who both pushed the girls to do their best. The team finished the league with a 9-1 record to win the team's "first outright league championship," as Coach Lopez put it. The team earned the right into C.I.F. but unfortunately lost a tough game in the first round. Lopez said he was pleased with the performance of the entire team and looks forward to repeating as champions next year and advancing further in C.I.F. Senior fullback Shakira Tatum spoke well for the team about the soccer season when she said, "It was fun. It was more of a family thing than just playing soccer. We cared about each other. It was one of the best seasons we've had."

ASB Executive Council

What a year...

The Executive Council made a huge impact on campus this year. With a change minded new Director of Student Activities, Mr. Ron Buda, and a nonconformist, "let's get involved, dude" type attitude, the twenty five member council sparked spirit and interest among all walks of life on campus.

Spurred by our fearless leader, ASB President Mandy Cornett, and her weekly doughnuts, the council took on many new activities. From vocally expressing our utter joy for the coming of Winter Recess through our "We Are the World" style recital of "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer", to Adam Ganey's heartfelt rendition of Hootie's "Hold Your Hand", and Jenny Levy's tireless efforts to keep things in line; ASB was on task and in action.

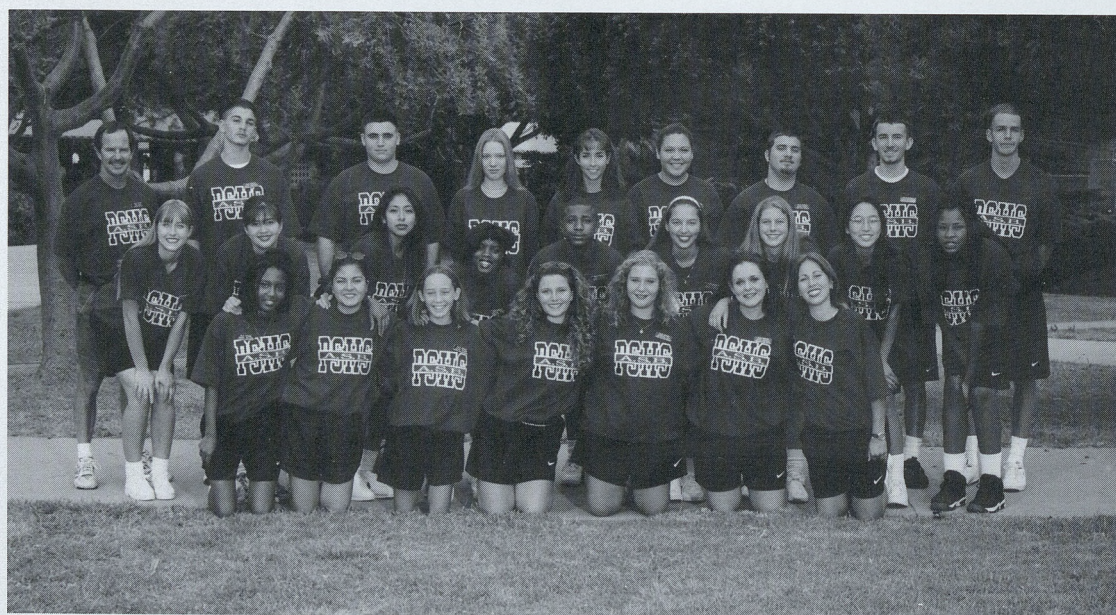

It just always seemed as though the Executive Council was having fun. At CADA we danced, the Potluck we fell; Disneyland we played, and the bathrooms we smelled. Blowfish T.A.ed, Homecoming we planned; we spent lots of money, and in Calderwood's we scanned. I guess you could say, we just kicked some tush.

Though there is still a long way to go to reach a level of student involvement equal to that of the late 70's, hopefully next year's Council will do just as well ... or maybe just as.

---Thobias Sherwood, Senior Class Something

Vocal Talent

Under the direction of Richard W. Reed, the Choral Department has enjoyed another year of successful performances. Ranging from Chorale and Concert Glee to Choir and Madrigals, these groups have participated in three major concerts: Sounds of the Season, Spring Sing, and Home Concert. For the first time in several years, Concert Choir was able to take part in a Vancouver tour trip, and in addition, they participated in a series of festivals and other club performances.

Magic in the snow

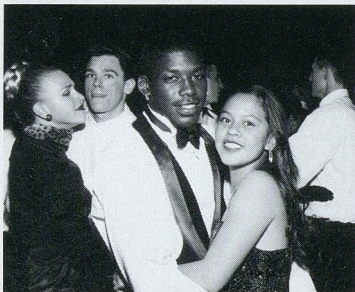

Darnel Johnson reigns over the Winter Dance as the King of the Mountain.

SOME OF THE PRINCES

Four of the six princes waiting for the announcement. Ryan Gomez catches some "z's" as someone catches the attention of Craig Elg, Bishop Miller, and Darnel Johnson. The other princes, A.J. Bates, Chuck Ailabouni are nowhere to be found.

A SPECIAL MOMENT

Craig Elg licks his lips as he spys the camera, but his date Shianne Hollander is too busy looking at the back of Bishop Miller's head to even notice.

LOOKIN' GOOD

CROWNING MOMENT

King Darnel Johnson and Nicola Brown smile for the camera.

JUST ABOUT TO LEAVE
Alicia Chatigny, David Prieto, and friends wait by the door in hopes to be home soon. Their curfew is nine o'clock.

Gina Diamond, Rosemarie Paredes, Howie Mc Aloney, Miles Hetchman, Brian Mc Fadden, Marissa Valdez, Adam Ulhorn, and Manisha Bali head down the mountain on the Tramcar.

Chris Sauser, Lowell Kerchman, and Eric Whiteman take a break with Nolle Horn and Bert De Villers.

What was your favorite thing about The Winter Dance?

"It sure wasn't the music." Sara Sullivan.

"Laughing at the girls that wore the same silver, blue, and red dresses! Carolina Brizuela.

"It was cool ... whatever ... I don't know ... it was fun ... if was fine." Kyle Sabie.

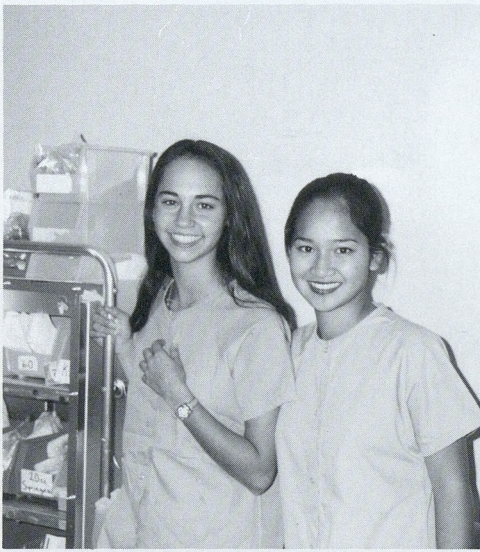

"You're talkin' to the wrong person 'cause I had an awful time at the Winter Dance. But ... I got to drive a nice car." Not Maneja

Decathlon

When it came to being pounded with knowledge, nobody did it better than the Aca-Deca Team.

When it came to setting an example for the younger members of the team, these Seniors did a great job. Ben Scott, Lewis Leiboh, and Tobias Sherwood toss the conventional ways of learning out the window as they prepare for the Language and Literature portion of the Decathlon.

Though she didn't show up to study very often, Shannon Prieto did read all of William Ebenstein's "ISMS", proving that her heart was really in to Aca-Deca this year. Here she does layouts for the yearbook.

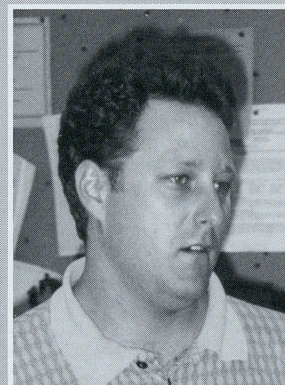

"The most enlightening subject for me has been ecology. It really gets into what's going on in the world and what we need to be aware of." Tobias Sherwood

"I had one day to read 'The Odyssey' and I had to study five books on capitalism for my speech." But, "we had some fun." Ian Hudson

"I'm the only hope for this team." Jennica Sherwood, days before she ditched her speech at competition, receiving zero points and bringing plenty of 'hope' to the team.

"We pound them with knowledge. They have to be very motivated." Shawn Pasqualini, Inspirational coach of the Decathlon team.

Ten weeks of...

Being pounded with knowledge. "Bathing in blood." It was all part of Academic Decathlon this year. With coaches Shawn Pasqualini and Cathy Weisman at the helm, it seemed as though this team was headed for victory, but a bad case of procrastinationitis overwhelmed them and set the tone for the annual undertaking.

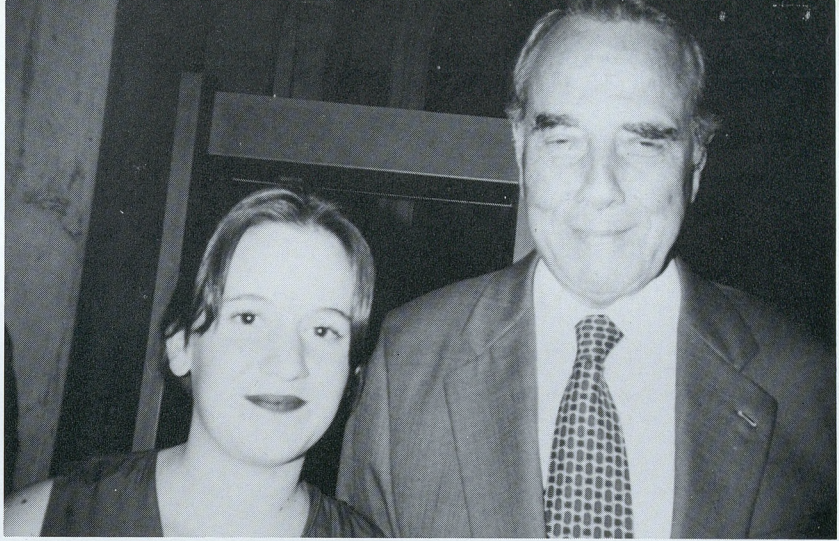

With the average attendance for study sessions hovering somewhere around fifty percent, the tide changed and ultimate embarrassment seemed imminent. If not for common sense and raw intellect, this result would have become reality, but intelligence prevailed and the team came away with five individual medals, despite a disappointing ninth place finish.

Junior Carrie Caranci lead the team with two medals. She received a gold in Speech and a silver in the Interview portion of the event. Seniors Ben Scott and Tobias Sherwood each earned a bronze medal; Scott in Language and Literature and Sherwood on the Essay. Sophomore phenom Ian Hudson stole the show though, marking up a bronze medal in the Speech and an additional gold medal for having the highest overall score on the team.

Tobias Sherwood

Heather Bush (left) and Carrie "Carnachi" Caranci provided a great 'one, two punch' for our school in the Scholastic portion of competition at Riverside this year. Aside from pulling in two medals at competition, Carrie headed the PSHS flag team during inspirational halftime shows at football games. In her spare time, Heather Bush "gets any guy she wants."

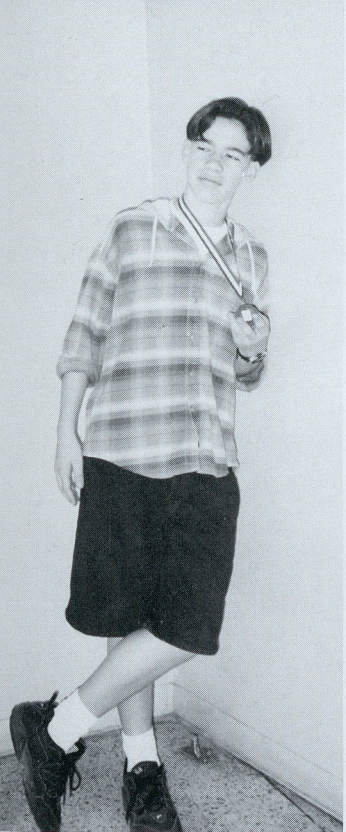

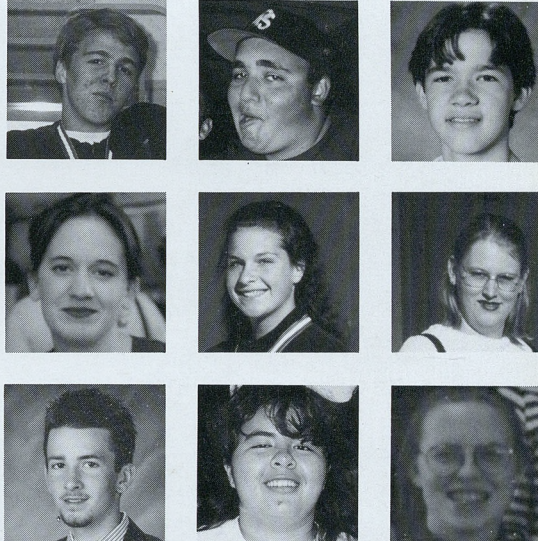

Sophomore Ian Hudson broke out of his shell this year as the emotional leader of the Aca-Deca team. His favorite thing to do when not studying for Aca-Deca was to "bathe in blood."

The year of 1996 has brought great success upon the Palm Springs High School Theatre Company. This was the first year they have produced three main stage productions, directed by Mrs. Mallet-Koch.

The season started out with the animated comedy, "Dinny and the Witches," by William Gibson. It was recognized by the Southern California Educational Theatre Associations and awarded to participate in the Festival of Scenes.

The second play performed by the Theatre Company was Neil Simon's "Fools," a slap stick comedy performed by the Advanced Drama Students. Continuing their new reputation of closing the season with a Shakespeare play, their final main stage production was "Much Ado About Nothing."

The Palm Springs High School Theatre Company is and always will be a great success. Congratulations guys on another year of wonderful performances.

Cracked Pots Club

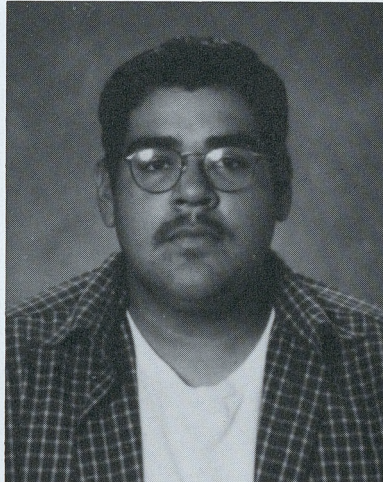

What exactly is the Cracked Pots Club? The answer may seem as far away as the Clippers winning a championship, but in reality, the truth is just beneath our noses. Is it a club that fixes cracked pots for a living? Not really. Is it a club for teachers at their wit's end? No, not exactly. Is it a clever cover up for a Colombian drug cartel? No, it's not that either. The Cracked Pots Club is a club for every student who loves seeing their creative genius come out of the kiln in the form of a ceramic masterpiece. There were a whopping three members in the club this year, and membership is on the rise. The president of the club is the biggest cracked pot of them all, Paul Davis. When not working, studying, fixing his Porsche, or goin' out with the ladies, Paul is busy making pots! "I love pots," Paul said, "especially cracked ones". Paul hopes to bring the legacy of the "Pots" with him to college. "In college, I can share my vision of a world full of pots with many more people; like four or five; then the Cracked Pots will live forever!" So for all you students whose hearts are pure ceramic and wish to go out and start your own Cracked Pots Club right now, just remember, crack and pot aren't good, but "Cracked Pots" are.

License to Drive

Driving Miss Daisy? Its more like driving us crazy. All the demands of school, work, and home can sometimes make us insane; but driving around with friends, listening to our car stereos, or fixing our rides when they need fixing usually offer some consolation to the strenuous days of high school. Here's a look at what some people drove this year ...

Irene Urias cleans the windshield of her '96 Lexus 300SE.

AO Espinoza and Steve Gergely pose by AO's '85 Toyota Camry.

Jennifer Vail hides in her O.G. Ride.

Jackie Baumgarten and her Dodge Stealth.

Peter Lewenda (A.K.A. "Mack Daddy" Pete) rides in style.

Paul Davis and Meilani "Priss" Lenart get comfy by Paul's Porsche 924. Below-Mark "Weedman" Wedin tries to hide his ride from the camera's view.

Ben Scott lounges on his '84 Mercury Topaz. Ben's philosophy of cars is, "The dirtier, the better." Ben's Topaz is the only one like it in the world.

Missy "Vanna White" McBride displays her Honda.

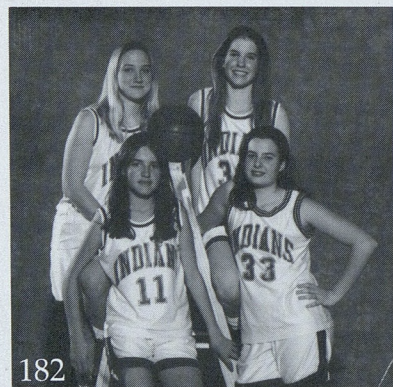

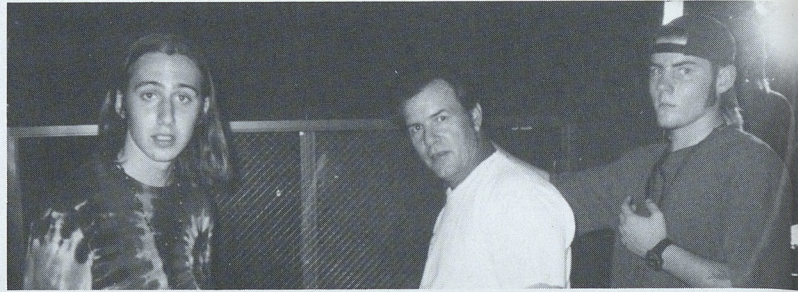

Sarah McTee and her '91 VW Fox.

Fashion

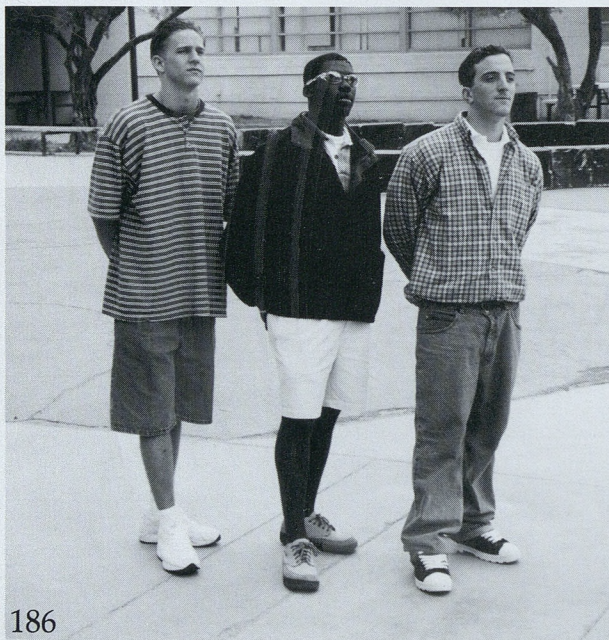

Fashion ... what to say about fashion? So much can be said about this vast topic. This seven letter word covers such a broad spectrum of do's and don'ts.

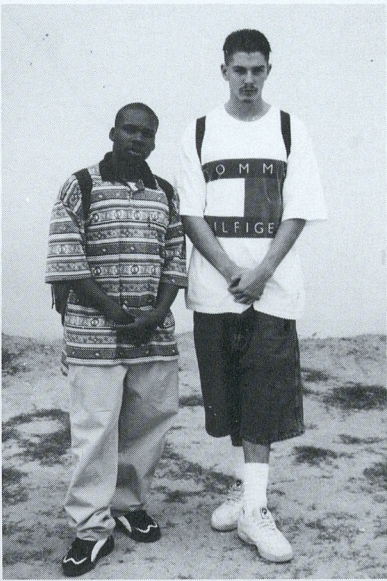

To some people, fashion is as simple as picking out the only outfit that isn't on the floor. Then there are those who pick out those comfortable yet cute outfits. But to others, each outfit is an intricate form of self expression that is carefully planned each night before school.

You wear clothes to show who you are. Your clothing can show your awareness in the world around you, trendiness, and your own unique style express your individuality. The thing about fashion that is so great is that it can be anything you make it. You can be the silent type dressed all in black who sits in the back of the class and still gets noticed. You can go to the mall and buy the trendiest outfit and still turn heads. Maybe your idea of fashion is to only buy top of the line designer clothes, like Tommy Hill and Calvin Klein, or you can be one of those rainbow color freaks who wears outfits that everyone just can't help but notice.

The bottom line is fashion is much like people, everyone is so different, but the same in many ways. Everyone has their own style and their own ways to show their individuality, but we're still all the same inside, and that's where it really counts, right?

IRENE URIAS

Or freaks?

Top Five Fashion Flaws at PSHS:

1. Trying to look cool, by copying someone else's style!
2. News flash! Stripes and Plaids just don't mix.
3. Coming to school wearing the same outfit as your best friend isn't cool anymore!
4. Don't be afraid to shop outside this valley. (Dare to be different.)
5. I don't care how comfortable it is if you slept in those clothes, don't wear them to school!

Construction

How has construction on campus affected you?

"The construction is good because next year there is going to be a nice school with big rooms and exquisite equipment. The bad thing about it is that I am not going to be a part of it."

MAHTA GAZOR-12th

"I think it's fantastic! And without it I wouldn't have a job!"

MR. PHELPS

"The construction hasn't really affected me. But it does show a positive thing. It shows a change for the years to come."

JENNIFER COUSINEAU-11th

"What does it matter?! I won't see it anyway!"

HEATHER SIPES-12th

"The construction doesn't bother me, I think improvement is good."

SARA EGELHOFF-10th

"I didn't mind the construction, some of the workers were pretty cute!"

KIMBERLY WALTHER-11th

"Construction on campus hasn't affected me all that much. I just wish it would've been done during summer. But, it will improve our school by making it look new and it will be good for future students to have a new school."

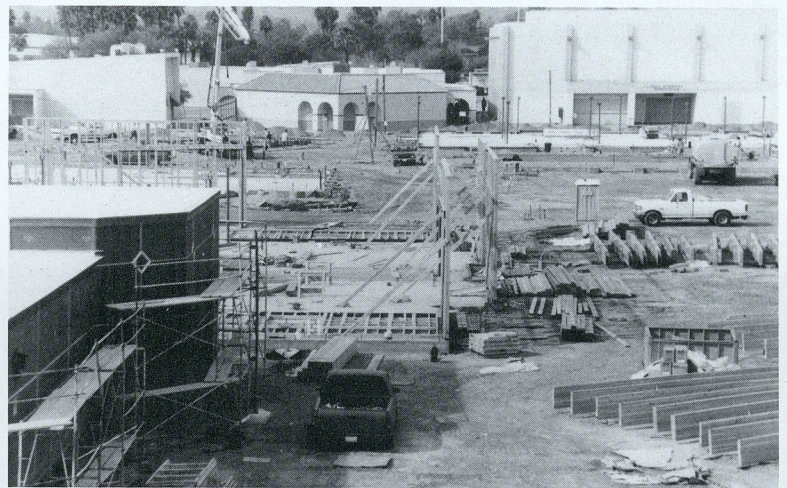

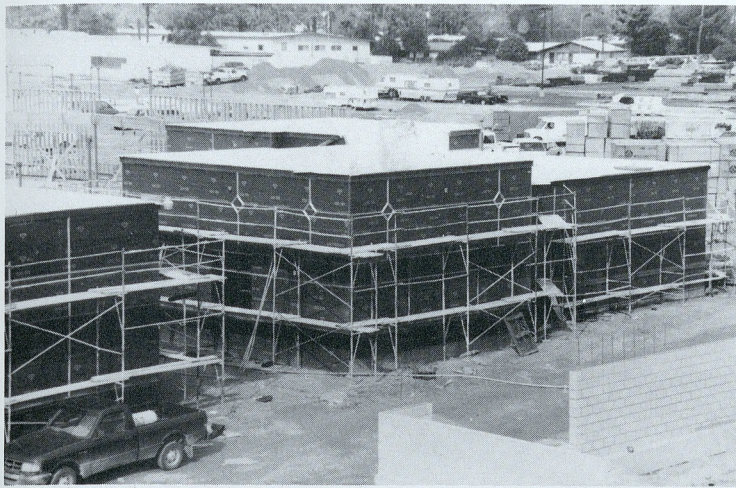

CARLA VEGA-10th

"I think the construction is a way to watch our school grow, but I wish it wasn't right smack in the middle of everything, it makes passing period inconvenient."

BECKI GAGNON-10th

"The only thing that bothers me about the construction is that when I come back for my 20 year reunion, the school won't be the same."

RAQUEL GATTINELLA-10th

"I'm not bothered by the construction, I know our school will be much nicer when the construction is finished. But it is inconvenient to have to walk around it. It makes the halls really crowded."

ALBERT RECINOS-10th

There are a lot of memories in this school and they could have waited till I left!

LEANNA HANLEY-12th

"I don't really care but I think it's good because it is about time the school got rebuilt."

TAKIESHA WILLIAMS-10th

"It takes forever to walk all over campus, but if they're going to make one big building, it's cool."

SAMANTHA PERKINS-10th

"I can care less, I'm not going to be here when it's finished."

AVANT MC KNIGHT-11th

"The construction on campus hasn't really bothered me. It kind of makes the hallways crowded but that's fine, as long as I know our school will be a lot better and nicer!"

LA CUCARACHA-10th

"Will the new school have clean bathrooms?"

JENNICA SHERWOOD-11th

"I can't wait until they finish building the school ... what's up with the teal bars?"

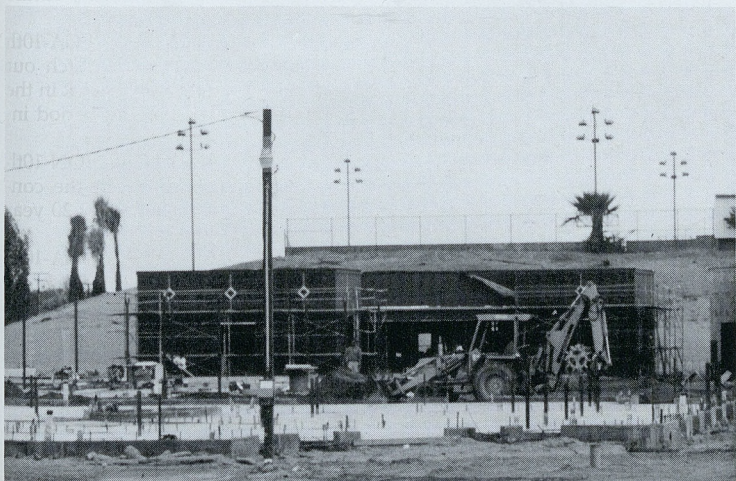

LOU-10th

"Why is the school being built for eighteen hundred students when we currently have twenty five hundred?"

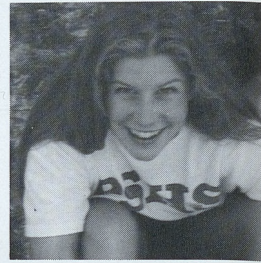

ANONYMOUS TEACHER

"The social effects of the new campus will be devastating. The closeness of classes will contribute to the growing problem of unfit students in the valley. In turn, the adults of the future in Palm Springs will preach of the values of watching T.V. and eating junk food and therefore the economic base of Palm Springs' tourist industry will be open for attack by militant groups seeking fluorescent outerwear."

Blood Drive

This year many faithful humanitarians flocked to donate blood at the blood drive sponsored by the Community Blood Bank. Instead of two blood drives, we had three, the first on November 9th, the second on February 9th, and the last on April 11th.

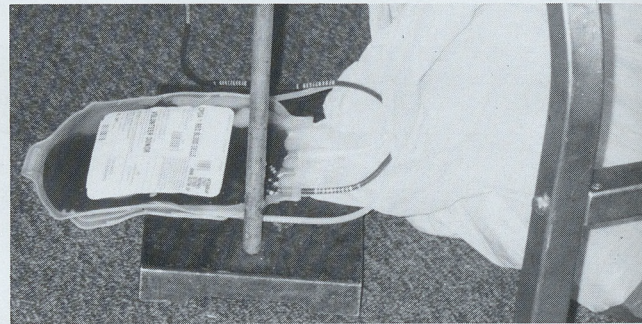

The first blood drive yielded 15 pints of blood total and in order to compete with our rival schools in the desert, the second blood drive offered free personal pizza coupons from Pizza Hut. This worked well and we doubled our donor participation.

Thank you to all the brave blood donors from the A.S.B. and the community Blood Bank. Remember, blood donors save lives!

Emotions run high:

Eddie Nunez was born August 5, 1978 in Watsonville, California, into a family of two brothers and a sister. His parents Enrique and Carmen Nunez were very proud of his many accomplishments in his short life. Eddie wasted no time at becoming successful. He was highly involved in many clubs which include AYSO, YMCA, CJSF, CSF, and Model United Nations. Eddie's academic abilities were exercised even at elementary level. He won first place in the fifth grade Spelling Bee. He was student of the year in the fifth grade. In his two and half years at Palm Springs High School, he was a freshman football player, team manager and advisor. He was also enrolled in numerous Advanced Placement classes. Eddie always dreamed about traveling to Europe; in summer of 1994, Peter Lewenda made his dream come true when he invited him on a three-week trip. Peter Lewenda will treasure the memories of his best friend Eddie. "Eddie was special in many ways, he was a great athlete, a hard worker, and a promising student, with plans for attending UCLA. A reliable friend-trusted by many, Eddie never gave up and always had a strong will". When Peter passed around Eddie's yearbook, he was happily surprised how much Eddie was liked, and now sadly missed. Peter Lewenda also said, "Eddie should be a role model for future students, he conquered anything that stood in way of success". Eddie Nunez passed away on December 31, 1994 at Loma Linda Medical Center, of Leukemia.

Now it's your turn Steve, Congratulations.

Justin! You're too cool!!! You're ready to roll!!!

"You are my sunshine, then, now, and always ..."
Love you, Jen!
-MOM-

Your family loves you, Molly Bingham.

Steve,

You have always made us proud of you right from the start, and we know you will always strive for the best in life. You are a very intelligent young man and will succeed in what ever you choose to do in the future. You can always count on us for anything, anytime. We love you very much!

All our love,
Mom & Dad

Ilana,

It is very important to us to be part of your life. You are a special person and we are proud of you! We wish you a good future with love and success.

Your Mom, Dad, and all your family

We are very proud of you, Maureen

A DOG'S PRAYER

Treat me kindly, my loved master, for no heart in all the world is more grateful for kindness than the loving heart of me.

Do not break my spirit with a stick, for though I should lick your hand between the blows, your patience and understanding will more quickly teach me the things you would have me do.

Speak to me often, for your voice is the world's sweetest music, as you must know by the fierce wagging of my tail when your footsteps fall upon my waiting ear.

When it is cold and wet, please take me inside, for I am now a domesticated animal, no longer used to bitter elements. And I ask no greater glory than the privilege of sitting at your feet beside the hearth. Though had you no home, I would rather follow you through ice and snow than rest upon the softest pillow in the warmest home in all the land, for you are my god and I am your devoted worshiper.

Keep my pan filled with fresh water, for although I should not reproach you were it dry, I cannot tell you when I suffer thirst. Feed me clean food, that I may stay well, to romp and play and do your bidding, to walk by your side, and stand ready, willing and able to protect you with my life should your life be in danger.

And, beloved master, should the great Master see fit to deprive me of my health or sight, do not turn me away from you. Rather, hold me gently in your arms as skilled hands grant me the merciful boon of eternal rest - and I will leave you knowing with the last breath I drew, that my fate was ever safest in your hands.

Final thoughts

"These have been an interesting four years, but thank 'god' we are moving on. I might actually miss this place, but don't count on it."

JENNIFER KIELEY

"There is so much fear and anticipation that comes along with graduating. I hope that I can keep the confidence throughout my life that this school has given me."

PATRICIA GREEN

"As the year passes by I remember more and more of the fun times my homies and I had. It was grrrrreat."

TIM KOZAK

"I'm graduating (hopefully); dropping old responsibilities and picking up a list of new ones. I've never been so optimistic or afraid in my life."

STEVE DeCASTRO

"High school is a joke. It's a social gathering of plastic people caught up in a world of rumors. The Administration is very political, seeming to care, but truly only caring about how the school looks in the public eye. My high school career wasn't inspiring and I'm glad it's over."

CAPRIN MEYERS

"I like ice cream."

LUKAS MARTISIUS

"You've got to learn to live all over again. But first you've got to learn to swim all over again. Because pain lies on the riverside."

THE OSCELOT

"Some people enter our lives and leave quickly, while others stay for a while and leave footprints on our hearts. Thanks and best of luck to those special people that did just that!"

MANDY CORNETT

"This year has been 'Hot Dog'!"

BEN SCOTT

"My high school years have been very memorable. The friends I've made along the way will never be forgotten. All the hard work that it took to get to this point was worth it."

ANGELA RODRIGUEZ

"Don't forget me-I want to be remembered as that crazy girl who showed you things you'd never seen, I did things no one ever did, I said things no one ever heard. I opened your eyes, ears, and heart and let you feel my GROOVE. I came, I saw, I conquered. Peace & Groove."

IRENE URIAS

"Some people should watch out for mustard this summer."

"I wish I could sum up my glorious tour of duty at P.S.H.S. with a single sentence, but I can't. Keeping in mind all the stuff that's gone on here, and all that I've been through, I would give almost anything to do it over again. Long live the class of 1996!"

CHRIS CAREY

"Class of '96 rules!"

MAHTA GAZOR

"We ran the race, did the work and sacrificed everything for a dream. For some it has become reality, for others it has not. Nonetheless, we'll spend the rest of our lives trying to decide if it was worth it, or more importantly, is it worth it?"

NICK STRECKER

"I would say that my four years in high school went by really fast, but everything was memorable. Senior year has to be the best! Just because you're almost out to the real world and I had some very special friends to share my memories with!"

CLANDESTINE P. ACACIO

"It is better to be thought a fool than to open one's mouth to prove it!"

AURELIO ESPINOZA

"If a lot of people die next year, walk your Labrador and start a new Shays' Rebellion."

ROTER

"My high school years have been full of ever changing experiences that I will always remember and cherish. Finally I'm outta here, "Real World" here I come. To my friends who've been there for me through rough times and sunny days, thanks for all the great memories we've shared."

JOONBUGGY

"I hope that the friendships that I have made during my years at P.S.H.S. will continue after high school and that the memories gathered the past four years will continue to be apart of my life."

LYNNE FIELDING

"I wish I could have my drivers license back!"

LEANNA HANLEY

"Choir members RULE!"

SENIOR CHOIR MEMBERS

"#1-After I graduate I'm going to overthrow the government and rename our country the United States of Amir.
#2-To all my teachers and classmates ... thanks for putting up with me."

AMIR REZAEI

"What can I say about Palm Springs High School? It's an experience you don't want to miss! Ha! Ha!"

TINA KAMENS

"My senior year has been the most challenging I've ever had in high school. It was like a hard test on myself from which I've survived."

VALERY MARTINEZ

"High School was wonderful! Those great memories will always stay with me and all the skills that I learned will certainly benefit me in the future."

ALUMNI

WE NEED YOUR NEW ADDRESS

NO DUES

A MESSAGE FROM THE PALM SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI

Congratulations, Seniors! You are now automatically a member of the Palm Springs High School Alumni Association. Your membership is free and permanent in this alliance whose aims are both social and charitable.

Following a number of class and multi-class reunions in the 50's and 60's that were very successful, Moya Henderson, then faculty, and Ron Pendergast, Class of '57 and then a faculty member, planned a retirement party for Paul Summers, who was a member of the original faculty that opened the school in 1938. This retirement party was for all alumni, classes and staff. It was an outstanding success. Following his retirement Mr. Summers and Dick Henson, Class of '48, and others formed the Alumni Association with a constitution and established a Trust Fund for grants to graduating seniors to assist in their continuing education in the names of students who died in the military service of our country.

The Association is open to all former students, staff and faculty. It facilitates class reunions and maintains a 20,000 plus name and address file from the school's opening in 1938 to the present. Currently, its automated file contains the addresses of over 56 percent of the alumni, filed by alphabet and class. You need only inform the Alumni Association of your addresses as you move through life by sending a post card to the Alumni, Palm Springs High School, 2248 E. Ramon Road, Palm Springs, CA 92264. Each class has at least one representative who helps keep its class file up-to-date on new addresses and helps arrange reunions. If you wish to participate, you need only contact the Alumni at the high school address.

Nostalgia for a reunion will set in as early as 5 to 10 years, certainly by 20 years. To date, there have been 36, the grandest being the school's 50th anniversary celebration held at the Palm Springs Convention Center in 1988. It was a sit-down dinner served to 1600 alumni and guests! Social events in the years have ranged from picnics, homecoming games, tail-gate parties to black-tie dinners.

Through the years the Alumni Association has played an active role in recognizing worthy achievements and honoring graduates. It has among other activities:

- 1) Paid annual tribute to 14 alumni combat fatalities of WW II and Vietnam Wars;
- 2) Managed an Association Scholarship Trust Fund and awarded 37 senior students scholarships, totaling more than $33,000;
- 3) Commended 12 local physicians for their gratis service to high school athletic programs;
- 4) Granted "Alumni Honored Teacher" status to 29 former faculty members;
- 5) Sent out innumerable mailers and supplied directory lists to class reunion organizers;
- 6) Recruited "Angel Bank-Rolling" to supply loans for reunion pre-event expenses;
- 7) Served as focal point of contact for alumni and their Alma Mater.

The Alumni welcomes you, wishes you success, and hopes you will maintain a close and satisfying relationship with us.
